

I cannot fathom why the FCC would consider a measure obviously meant to destroy the rights of people to time-shift their television viewing. Please vote down this egregious attempt to squash consumer rights.